Q. What is the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation?

A. It is a non-profit public charity serving the greater Manhattan/Riley County area. The Foundation is a collection of many different charitable funds, each separately accounted for, and each with its own design and purpose.

The GMCF provides an opportunity for people who know and love the Manhattan/Riley County area to combine their charitable dollars for the common good of the community.

The GMCF receives donations from individuals, families, businesses, and charitable organizations. These funds are typically invested and the annual income is made available for charitable purposes in our community.

Q. What kind of tax deductible gifts can be made?

- A. • Outright gifts of cash or securities
- Memorial gifts of any size honoring loved ones
- Deferred gifts such as bequests, trusts, or life insurance policies
- Real Estate
- Grain and/or livestock
- Depreciated farm machinery

Q. Why should I give through the Community Foundation?

- A. Each donor to the GMCF has unique desires and circumstances where the community foundation is a perfect fit.
 - A family recently sold appreciated assets and needs an immediate tax deduction, but wants to take time to decide where they make grants.
 - An individual wants to make an anonymous gift.
 - A donor wants more control regarding how their gift is used by a specific non-profit.
 - A non-profit's board wants to establish an endowment that future boards won't be able to spend down.

The GMCF is the answer. The Foundation administers endowments as its primary business. In fact, many non-profits in Manhattan have established operating endowments with the GMCF.
