#MHK TOGETHER

It didn't take long after COVID-19 reared its ugly head that Manhattan based marketing firm, 502, began brain storming about ways they could help. Blade Mages, owner of 502, reached out to GMCF to talk about an idea he had. As a result, MHK Together was born. This is how the Buy One, Give One program worked - buy a gift card from one of the participating businesses, and the amount spent was matched dollar-for-dollar by a fund at the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation. That match continues to provide food assistance via grocery store gift cards to Riley County residents who are out of work thanks to the pandemic. A huge thank you to 502, everyone who purchased gift cards, Dillon's and Hy-Vee for donations, Shepherd's Crossing and Konza United Way for getting the grocery gift cards to families in need, and the matching donors: Ward & Brenda Morgan, Megan & Bruce Weber, Mary Vanier, Marty Vanier, the Lincoln & Dorothy Deihl Advised Fund, the Butler Family Foundation, and the Jack Goldstein Charitable Trust.
